May God Bless You Abundantly

Hi Elliot Odle here... and I want to talk to you about confession... As I feel it compliments this week's module, "You decree a thing it shall be established..." (Job22:28) God is a God who, "...confirmeth the word of his servant, and performeth the counsel of his messengers..." Isaiah44:26. He said, "...Concerning works of my hand command ye me" Isaiah45:11. When you speak or CONFESS God's Word, and TRUST Him, you give Him permission to get involved in your situation!

Now I mentioned the Word confession... And The Greek word for confession is "Homo-Logeo", "Homo" means "same" and "Logeo" is to do with Words spoken. So it means to SAY what has BEEN said, we are to SAY what GOD has already said! Or we are to speak the SAME thing God has spoken!

You decree a thing and it shall be established... when you believe that those things which you say shall come to pass; you shall have whatsoever you say!

Now I want to talk about taking it one step further than just merely saying, what you believe in the hope it comes to pass, I want to show you the significance of calling things that be not as though they were, Romans4:17 says, "God... calleth those things which be not as though they were." Now in the context the Bible says this it was talking about God who said, "I have made thee a father of many nations..." talking about Abraham... The key word there is HAVE... You see God said I have made thee a father of many nations thousands of years before he actually was... We will talk in more detail about this later...

But for now I want to reinforce the belief that you also can call things which be not as though they were... now if an alarm just went off in your mind and you are, "saying hold on a minute Elliot you can't say that!!!" Then that tells me you have skipped ahead and watched this video before listening to, "Ye shall decree a thing and it shall be established!" So stop this video and make sure you go through the module first, and then come back!

Continuing on...

You can call things which be not as though they were because God... calleth those things which be not as though they were." Romans4:17 (And confession as we discussed means saying what God has said)

Ephesians5:1 says, "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children", that word "follower" in the Greek means to mimic or imitate! So we are to mimic how our father operates! "Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee:" Job28:22 And once you have done this, you must only speak of it as having been accomplished!!! Imitating your Father!!!

Now I wanna tell you, my personal testimony, which really illustrates this nicely, where I actually applied this... Now it's a terrible example of applying this principle but the point is it worked and as I get to the end, you'll know get what I mean...

(Now I'll admit, I didn't know, this was a principle, so I was applying the principle ignorant of the fact that I was doing so, but principles work, whether you are aware you are applying them or not.)

So here's my experience: When I was about 14-15 years old, there was this girl who I had a HUGE crush on and I mean huge because I prayed about it fervently! Now I first met her when I was 4!!! And at 15 years old, I decided I was going to marry her, I didn't know how, I just knew I wanted this dream to be a reality!

But check this out, this all sounds very good and sweet, but here's what I didn't mention! I had all Odds against me... my chances of getting with her were slim to non existent... 2 main reasons there was an age issue, and a major height issue, You can see where this is going! Can't you? plus I didn't know if she would be even remotely interested... Why? Let me explain... What girl do you know who is 19 years old and 5'11 tall, who would marry a 15 year old who was barely even 5'1, yeah exactly!!! These were the circumstances... But despite this I was determined, that some way some how this girl would be mine! I remember praying one night on my bed, pleading fervently to the Lord that one day, ONE SWEET, SWEET day this girl would be my wife!

Now in order for that to happen, I thought my chances would increase somewhat significantly, if I had a major growth spurt! Now the 4 year age gap was pointless praying about as that can't change! And to be honest I wasn't that worried about the age gap! My concern was my height...

"While we look not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." 2Corinthians4:18 I was praying that my height situation was in fact a temporary issue because, everybody my age was leaving me further and further behind!

Here's where it gets interesting... Don't worry there is a relevant point to this story, hang in there!

December 25th 2000, my parents brought me a mobile! Now this girl and I were good friends and every time I'd see her at church, I'd look forward to my hug from her and she didn't know I had a crush on her! Anyway when I got this mobile phone I was exchanging numbers with people and when she put her number in my phone she saved it as "WIFE" because she thought I was cute and in jest would call me her husband! And she put my number in her phone as husband, now of course I knew she wasn't being serious, but over the years, I NEVER changed her name in my phone! I kept it as wife and every time she'd call I'd see Wife!

Anyway to cut a long story very short, we'll fast forward a few years, well actually first let me say this, around the same time I prayed to God about her, I was endowed with a gift to compose poetry! Now for years I would go through numerous scenarios in my head, where I would practice telling her how I felt! Fast forward to February 2008 I was invited to perform my poetry at a theatre in London! I invited her to come watch me, she had never really seen me perform before! So I wrote a poem about her! Now because of the type of person she is, I didn't think it would be wise to just surprise her like that so I sort of forewarned her what was going to happen! I insinuated that my poem was going to be about her, now bare in mind I hadn't actually told her how I felt to this point! And I have to admit, I chickened out I said to her that my poem was about her because I USED To have a crush on her, kind of hinting that I didn't have that crush anymore! This was about 2 weeks prior to the performance!

So anyway I performed it and it went really well, everybody loved it! God has really blessed me with this gift! So after the performance she was really quiet and then late that evening she texted me saying how amazing she thought it was and that it was really flattering and touched her! Now I'm not gonna recite the poem to you now, maybe I'll do it another time, this video will be really long otherwise! It's called "never in a million years" But basically the content of the poem basically blatantly told her I thought she was gorgeous and that I wanted her more than anything! So obviously a friend of 15 + years telling you they like you is a bit of a shock! So I thought I'd not come on too strong, give her time and then at some point we would talk!

Well little much was said after the performance had taken place, she texted me now and then with questions about my feelings and the poem and then finally she text me saying, she'd been losing sleep over the poem and that she wanted to talk!

So I was like OK here goes, either she's gonna tell me, she's interested or that she and I can only be friends and nothing more!!! So I was nervous as you can imagine... But finally on the 15th March 2008 we met up we had a little small talk and then, when all the beating around the bush was enough, and I wanted to get it over with, I braced myself

And she uttered the words "So... do you wanna take this further???" Now you should have seen me, I played it so cool, but I was leaping for joy inside, but I calmly responded, "Yes if you want to" And she and I have been an item ever since. It's funny she just came out with "So... do you wanna take this further" She didn't even tell me she liked me first! But hey whatever I'll take it!

So Elliot you mean to tell me... your girlfriend all 5"11 of her is going out with you 5"11! Oh I forgot to mention. God answered my other prayer! When I was about 17-20 I had a growth spurt! I'm now arguably 5"11 she is still half an inch taller than me! I think she grew a bit to! Oh and guess what else she and I are the same age now! No I'm being silly!

All I can say is the fervent prayer of the righteous avails much!

But the point of the story is the part where she put WIFE in my phone every time I saw "wife" when she called or texted, it was a constant strengthening of my faith, that maybe we could in fact be together. I was calling things that be not as though they were! And OK granted we aren't husband and wife yet, but by God's grace we will be, the point is we are an item, we're pretty serious... And I'm pretty certain if I ask her to meet at the altar in an elegant white gown she'll say YES! So please pray for us! My sanity depends on it!

I still have her as "wife" in my phone I'm still calling things which be not as though they were! You can see the principle works! But now you can also see why this is a terrible example, because you can't exactly just decide you want to marry a particular person and name them as your "spouse" in your phone! Please don't do that and go around calling people your spouse, saying Elliot told me I could do that! No you're missing the point! The point of this example was to highlight a principle! I thought you'd enjoy the story

Now I am going to give you a good biblical example and evidence that this is in truth a sound principle!

God said to Abraham I have made thee a father of many nations... Abraham believed, even God, who quickeneth the dead, and calleth those things which be not as though they were." Romans 4:17 Even though he was old and Sarah was barren! He didn't consider that!

He looked, "...not at the things which are seen, but at the things which are not seen: for the things which are seen are temporal; but the things which are not seen are eternal." 2Corinthians 4:18

He called Himself and introduced Himself to others as the Father of many nations! "Be ye therefore followers of God, as dear children" Ephesians 5:1, AS I said that word follower in the Greek means to mimic or imitate! Abraham mimicked his Father in heaven!

"Thou shalt also decree a thing, and it shall be established unto thee: and the light shall shine upon thy ways." Job 28:22

Jesus said, whosoever shall say and shall not doubt in your heart, but shall believe that those things which you saith shall come to pass; you shall have whatsoever you saith. (Mark 11:23)

Talk about what you want as if it is done. Abraham did this with His name. AS you may or may not know Abraham means "Father of Nations" God changed Abram's name to Abraham so He would constantly be feeding into His mind that He was the Father of many nations, so he would be fully persuaded that what God promised He was also able to perform! Also there is power when you speak something God has said, it will come to pass!

Proverbs 18:20-21 says, "A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled. Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." Abraham went around calling Himself the Father of many nations before He was! And now He is today!

God also gave Abraham visual reminders of what was going to be! The stars in the sky and the sand on the ground, reminding Him of how numerous His descendants would be! So if you can also get an image of the thing you want to accomplish! It helps your faith a great deal and if you talk about what you want to accomplish as already done, and you believe what you say will come to pass! You WILL have what you say!

Now back to the story about my girlfriend and I waited years from the time I prayed on my bed to the day, she said, "So do you wanna take this further" So we need to be patient. One day I asked God, "Lord why does it take so long, sometimes for things to come to pass, why can't they come to pass instantaneously" God said, "There are just some things you have to wait for, son there are things I said thousands of years ago which still haven't happened yet. You've only been here 20 odd years"

Now there is a reason for this video, I've come up with some things from the Word of God that I want you to decree and confess over your life EVERYDAY. Speaking about them as if they already are so!

These scriptures identify with what God's word says you can be do and have because of who Christ made you. You can do anything if you realise who you are in Christ Jesus and recognize the power within you, you will become the things you speak about as you believe what you say! "Now unto him that is able to do exceeding abundantly above all that we ask or think, according to the power that worketh in us"

"Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God, so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." Hebrews 11:1,3 In other words this text is saying, the things which do appear were made by the Word of God which you can't see! Think about it words are invisible! Words are what framed the world around you! And you have the power in your tongue to frame the world around you! Proverbs 18:20 says, "A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth..." So speak the Word of God over your life...

"There is a thinking stuff from which ALL things are made, and which, in its original state, permeates, penetrates, and fills the interspaces of the universe.

A thought, in this substance, produces the thing that is imaged by the thought.

You can form things in your thoughts!!! And by impressing your thoughts upon formless substance, you can cause the thing YOU think about to be created.

You must form a clear mental picture of the things you want. And you must hold this picture in your thoughts with the fixed purpose to get what you want and the unwavering faith that you WILL get what you want, closing your mind to all that may shake your purpose, dim your vision, or quench your faith.

In order to be ready to receive what you want, when it comes, you must act NOW upon the people and things in your present environment." (The Science of Getting Rich)

I mentioned earlier that I've selected quotes from The Word of God for you which are in an ebook on this page which you can download, there is also an audio version of it to, which you should be able to see!) I want you to make reading, listening and speaking what's in there part of your daily routine, you'll understand why when I talk you through the process...

THE PROCESS

In order for the Word of God you speak to take effect in your life. You need to have constant exposure to it, you must be transformed by the renewing of your mind...

Now When renewing your mind it's a lot like a jug filled with milk...

Glass to drink = results

Water = word of God

Tap= Bible (resource where Word of God is obtained)

Jug = your mind

Milk = influences which aren't from God

For example, let's say the milk is sin or negative thoughts and ideas, which are holding you back from operating in what God says you can. And you begin to pour water which is in our example the Word of God into that jug.

We're talking about renewing your mind now stay with me. At first when you start putting water in that jug and you want a glass of water and let's say you can only get it from the jug, what comes out the jug? Milk and water mixed. Now I'm talking about the process in getting results.

You see there is so much milk in there, even though you poured water in there, it looks like for a while all that is coming out is milk. You've got some water in there but it's mostly milk, now what you want is water, so you can get frustrated because you poured water in there and your still getting milk.

Well the whole jug was full with milk. So the key is to keep pouring water in! You keep pouring it in there eventually it will displace every last bit of milk and all that's left is water and if all that ever goes in there from that point is water, then all that ever comes out will be water!

Then your results resemble what's coming in, what's going in is coming out. Now it can be tempting to say Ok I got nothing but water in there I'm taking a break, I'm gonna stop putting water in there... but the thing is you still want to drink water.

If you keep pouring water without replacing what you put in the jug it will eventually become dripping water, where as before it was gushing out! And eventually it runs dry! And there is nothing to put in your glass!

What you want to do is keep that jug topped up with water and every time you want a glass to drink, you will have water to pour into that glass, because you always have that jug topped up with water!

Now that's what you want to do with this confession say it everyday keep yourself topped up keep renewing your mind. In the morning and before you go to sleep! And you will see the influences not from God will be displaced with the Word of God and The results you produce will resemble, what's being poured into your mind. Like the water in the glass, resembles what was coming out of the tap! Consistency is the key to success with this!

Now go ahead and download the ebook and the MP3 you see called "Confession"

Ye shall decree a thing and it SHALL be established, unto you! "A man's belly shall be satisfied with the fruit of his mouth; and with the increase of his lips shall he be filled. Death and life are in the power of the tongue: and they that love it shall eat the fruit thereof." Proverbs 18:20-21

Whosoever shall say and shall not doubt in his heart, but shall believe that those things which he saith shall come to pass; he shall have whatsoever he saith
